

Yesterday's Report.

(World's Dispatches.)

Washington, May 27.—No Virginians are allowed to enter Alexandria unless known to the loyal.

A large number of persons were arrested to-day for uttering treasonable sentiments. The fortifications commanding Arlington Heights are nearly completed.

A gentleman from Richmond to-day states that the greatest activity prevails in the military. He was only permitted to leave on being identified as a well known Baltimore merchant.

The general sentiment in Richmond was that an attack must be made on the forces at Alexandria, but that idea did not prevail as he came further north. The public feeling was that war was fully inaugurated, and that while the present was full of trouble, their future was gloomy and dark.

I am informed that several secret meetings of Union men were held in Alexandria, Fredericksburg, and several other places in the State, with a view to organize and arm for mutual protection while voting for the Union ticket.

The vigilance of the rebels and the difficulty in obtaining arms prevented their plans.

A Virginian from some 40 miles from here reports to-night he met on his way 5,000 rebel troops all marching for Harper's Ferry. They were poorly clad and two-thirds of them were armed with revolvers tied around their waists with ropes.

(Tribune's Dispatch.)

Hon. John McClellan is here waiting the prompt assembling of a very large force of the government on the line of the proposed military operations. He, also, urges the government to promptly purchase large quantities of provisions and grain now in the hands of the Illinois farmers and relieve them in some measure from the loss of their lower Mississippi market.

Gov. Banks will be tendered a Brigadier Generalship and detailed to the bureau of Quarter Master General. J. C. Fremont has been appointed Major General, and Geo. Denison Naval Officer.

The President to-day accepted six additional regiments of volunteers from Indiana.

The War Department was to-day offered a battalion and battery of four twelve-pounders, by a gentleman from Baltimore. They will probably be accepted.

At one o'clock this a. m. Lieut. Tompkins with a guard of mounted men reconnoitered towards Fairfax, C. H. A mile this side two horses were espied without riders. The horses surrendered and two uniformed men started up. One leveled a fowling piece at the Lieut. and the other a revolver. The fowling piece accidentally went off and the Virginian was shot in his right arm. Both were taken prisoners and had fine horses.

Rumor predicts a speedy advance of troops commanded by Beauregard to retake Alexandria.

A Union flag is flying on the Marshall House in the place of the Southern rag.

The Times has a letter from Peterham, in Western Virginia, which says:—"The State troops are constantly coming in, bringing arms, and we are anxiously looking forward for help from Ohio, to drive them off; and I hope they will come soon. The little county of Taylor gave 700 majority against secession. One of the traitors standing guard last night shot a good Union man dead, as he was passing by, going to town. Fathers are against sons, brothers against brothers. We have force enough in our section, but we have no authority to act, and we want a U. S. officer to lead."

(Times' Special.)

There has been a mistake concerning the naval force now at Sewell's Point. The Navy Department say there should be only the Montecello and two small single gun boats there. The Minnesota ought to be by this time off Charleston, S. C., blockading that harbor.

If there has been an attack therefore upon Sewell's Point, as has been reported the past few days in which the Minnesota was engaged, she disobeyed her orders, which is not at all probable.

(Herald's Special.)

Washington, May 28.—It is said that Davis and Beauregard are expected in Richmond to-day. Defenses are being constructed outside of Richmond. All the bridges on the Alexandria R. R. have been burned. Proposals will be issued for 40 Steam Gun Boats of 500 tons. Brigadier Gen. McDowell takes command of the forces in Virginia in place of Gen. Sanford. Gov. Banks favors putting an army of 300,000 men in the field so that the difficulties may be speedily settled.

Faather Point, May 28.—No signs of the steamer Hibernian, now due.

Washington, May 28.—The belief that the President has determined to tender Col. Fremont a Major Generalship elicits much gratification. Ex-Gov. Banks is here by invitation of the Secretary of War.—The Washington City Council have passed a resolution of respect to Col. Ellsworth.

Col. Ellsworth's Last Letter.

It has already been stated that one of the last acts of Col. Ellsworth before leaving the Camp for Alexandria, was to address a letter to his parents, who reside in Mechanicsville, near Troy, New York. The following is a copy of that letter:

Head Quarters First Zouaves, Camp Lincoln, Washington, D. C., May 28, 1861.

MY DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER:—The Regiment is ordered to move across the river to-night. We have no means of knowing what reception we are to meet with. I am inclined to the opinion that our entrance to the City of Alexandria will be hotly contested, as I am just informed a large force have arrived there to-day. Should this happen, my dear parents, it may be my lot to be injured in some manner. Whatever may happen, cherish the consolation that I was engaged in the performance of a sacred duty; and to-night thinking of the probabilities of to-morrow, and the occurrences of the past, I am perfectly content to accept whatever my fortune may be, confident that He who noteth even the fall of a sparrow, may have some purpose, even in the fate of one like me.

My darling and ever loved parents, good bye. God bless, protect and care for you.

ELMER.

(Special Despatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.)

Baltimore, May 27.—A writ of habeas corpus was issued yesterday by Judge Taney for the body of John Berriman, arrested on Saturday by order of Gen. Cadwallader on a charge of treason. The writ was made returnable to-day at 11 a. m., in the United States District Court, Chief Justice Taney and Justice Giles presiding.

When the hour for the return of the writ arrived, an officer appeared in Court, who said that Gen. Cadwallader had been authorized by the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and that Merriman could not be given up.

Upon this, Judge Taney issued a warrant citing Gen. Cadwallader to appear before him at noon to-morrow to show cause why the habeas corpus is suspended, and the orders of the Court disobeyed.

The matter causes intense excitement.

western Virginia Uncompromisingly for the Union.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says:

To sum up the whole matter, the election yesterday, so far as heard from, both at home and abroad, surpasses the most sanguine expectations of the Union men.—Who, for instance, ever dreamed of from 700 to 800 majority in the county of Berkeley, over in the Valley? Or who of 275 in the town of Parkersburg, and from 1,700 to 1,800 majority in Wood county? Or who of a unanimous vote 193 at Cameron? or two to one at Fairmont? Or, above all, of 1,000 majority in the county of Harrison? All these returns are in the highest degree cheering. They show that North-western Virginia is overwhelmingly sound on the Union, and give an unmistakable earnest of what her action will be on the 11th day of June, in Convention, unless, between this and then, she is overrun by the ruffian squads of secession traitors who are at work now trying to intimidate the people with a show of muskets.
